

"The Timebank" was selected for screening on the International Film Festival Ireland 2009 in September.

We made it again! Our award winning documentary The Timebank – an economy for everyone was selected for screening at an international festival again. This time it is going to be shown at the International Film Festival Ireland 2009 in Galway. We are looking forward to the Emerald Isle.

